

South Delta IMPROVEMENTS PROGRAM

Department of Water Resources

The South Delta Improvements Program (SDIP) is a series of proposed actions to improve water quality and protect salmon in the South Delta while allowing the State Water Project to operate more efficiently. The Department of Water Resources will be holding five informational meetings to give the public the opportunity to learn more about the proposed project. In addition, three NEPA/CEQA public hearings have been scheduled to receive formal comments on the SDIP.
